DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 4-6, they are merely reciting that "a storage medium having instructions stored thereon" without the computer-readable medium needed to realize the computer program's functionality, since claims 4-6 fail to specifically recite "a computer-readable medium encoded/stored with a computer program", they are not a computer element which defines structural interrelationship between the computer program and the rest of the computer which permit the computer program's functionality to be realized, and thus, they are not statutory.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-3 and 7-13 are allowed over the cited prior art.

Regarding independent claims 1, 3, 7, and 11, the cited prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest the claimed invention with the reasons set forth in the Applicant's remarks filed 02/26/2007, pages 8-9.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, see pages 8-9, filed 02/26/2007, with respect to claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 11 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of previous Office action has been withdrawn.
